WHEN I MENTIONED

... last week the hiring of relatives in offices of state agencies, I primarily brought it up as a single, pot-shot personal opinion.

But, dang me, it wouldn't seem it was like I flushed a covey of quail, what with all the questions, speculations, and such that went on.

And one would think I was the first ever to broach such a subject. But I'm sorry to say someone thought of it long before I came along. As proof of this, many school boards [perhaps most of them] have a policy that no relatives of a trustee can be hired in the system.

Judging by this and expressed public sentiment on many occasions, it is only fair to assume that such a practice [when it exists] turns the public off.

I know it does me. I believe that a written policy should forbid such practices in all governmental entities from the smallest to the largest, from the lowest level to the highest level. It is definitely a form of favoritism that should not be allowed to exist.

THE SNAKE STORY

... of all snake stories was told to me at Randolph AFB the other day. I can't remember who told it, but the story came up in a group discussion on snakes [we had already exhausted sex, politics and religion].

Anyway, this man said that in the community of Live Oak [one of the many municipalities that has sprung up around Randolph] a man's dog died from a rattlesnake bite, and get this the fang marks measured more than three inches apart.

Now, you snake experts tell me how large would that make the snake if he did exist?

I'm not saying I believe he does, or doesn't, but he's a whopper of a snake if he does--and that's a whopper of a story if he doesn't.

LEAVE IT TO

... Sis McDade from down Corpus Christi way to come up with a fine suggestion for our Corn Shucking Bee.

She says: "How about corn shuck bow ties for the men and hair bows for the lady corn shuckers from Hondo?"

And she even sent along a sample ["rough sample" according to her], for us to go by. We'll see if we can't get it around for everyone to see.

Which brings up the question? Have you entered the Corn Shucking Bee yet? It's only $1.00 and you can have plenty of fun.

Poerner supports anti-airport citizens

State legislator John Poerner has sided with the Bexar-Medina-Atascosa Citizens organization opposing the location of the proposed San Antonio regional airport at Site H, or Alternate Site H in Medina and part of Bexar Counties.

County Judge Jerome Decker also promised close study into the group's objections to the airport location.

"We need progress, but our ideas of progress have changed," said Poerner.

"At one time agriculture was on the down-side, and many farms weren't producing and people were going to the city to seek jobs.

"Now, with improved highways and means of transportation and increased food production on improved farms, conditions are different," Poerner said.

"We also have found that we have neglected to take care of our environment. We must stop just looking at the dollar and do something to protect and improve our environment and way of life," he added.

Poerner praised the group for desiring to protect the neighborly communities and family farms in the area from the encroachment of a modern airport and an entirely different way of life which would be created as a result.

His words were addressed to about 175 persons who gathered in the junior high school gym in LaCoste Friday night to make further plans for preventing the airport from being located in the area.

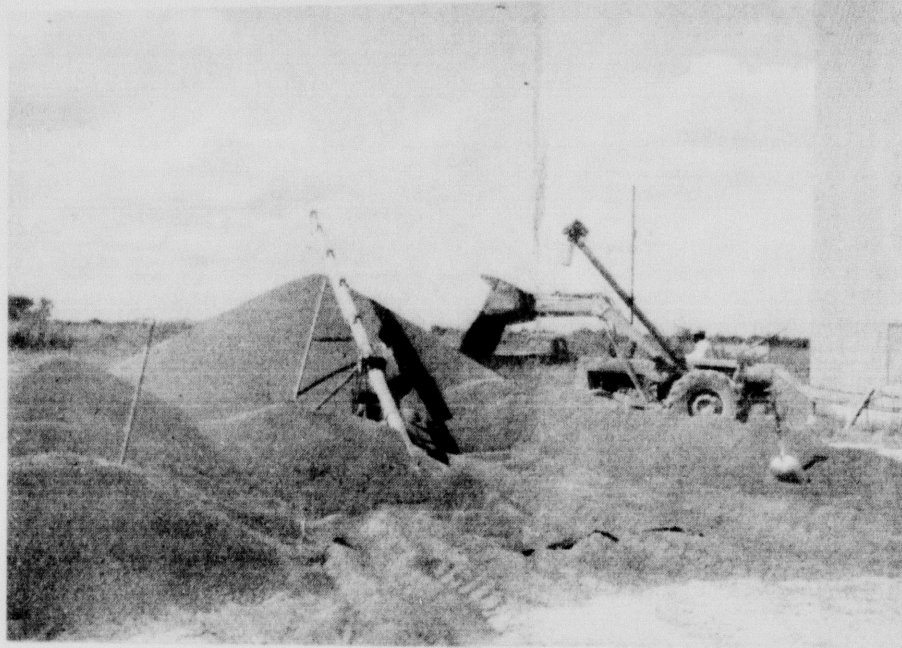

Medina County Judge Jerome Decker assured the group that both the Alamo Area Council of Governments as well as Medina County Commissioners Court were spending a lot of time studying every facet of the airport proposal.

"I pledge you that before any decision is made, we will find out just what it will do to the communities and farms in this area," he declared.

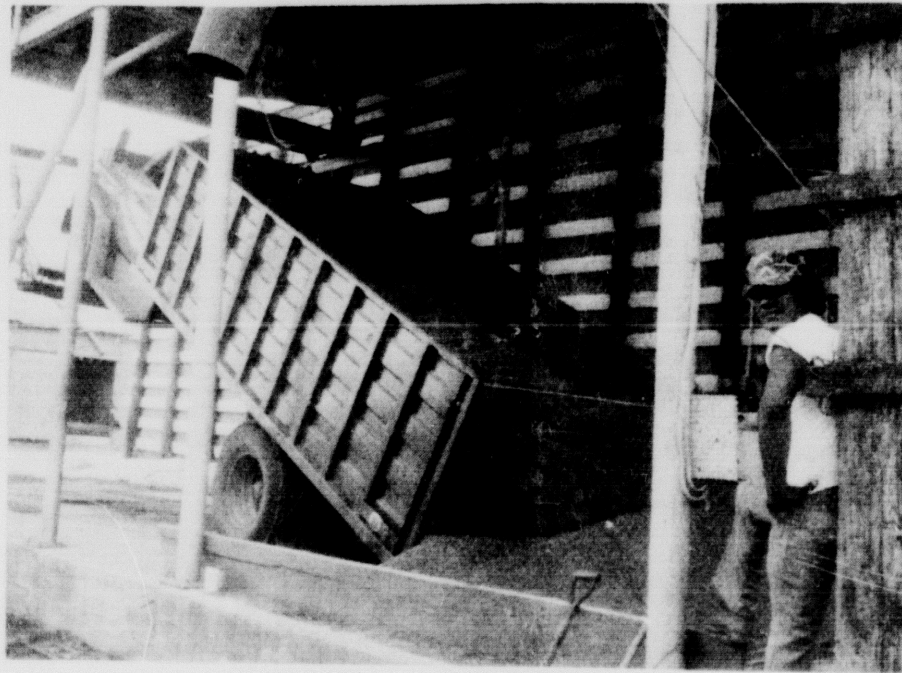

It was brought out that 43 percent of the land in the 13,814 acres proposed for the airport is prime Class I and II agricultural land, and that the Medina County Farm Bureau recently adopted a resolution opposing the airport in this area.

The board of directors of Bexar-Medina-Atascosa Water Improvement District No. 1 which supplies irrigation water to farms from Medina Lake has voiced on the grounds that it would impair this system if the airport is situated in the area. Alvin Woolverton, retired U.S. air force colonel who lives between LaCoste and Macdonia pointed out that 4,000 acres in the center of the proposed two by 12 mile tract will be used for the terminal and facilities, but that ownership of the entire tract will enable the airport authority to control what is built in the area.

Fred Miller of LaCoste made a plea for financial support to assist future activities of the group, and many individuals made voluntary contributions at the close of the meeting.

THEIR BIN OVERFLOWS--Mumme's Inc. on Highway 90 began to pile new milo on the ground outside the already-full bins. This storage is temporary until bin space can be provided, but it illustrates the bumper-crop dimensions of the 1973 harvest.

NEXT IN LINE, PLEASE--Chapman Grain Inc. ran a constant stream of grain trucks through the elevator-unloader Tuesday. Operations there had gone past midnight both Monday and Tuesday nights as the harvest hits full swing. Hoist operator Ruben Reyes is at right.

Local markets feel meat shortage

Meat markets of local grocery stores are feeling the pinch of the meat shortage brought about by the ceiling prices still in effect on beef retail sales.

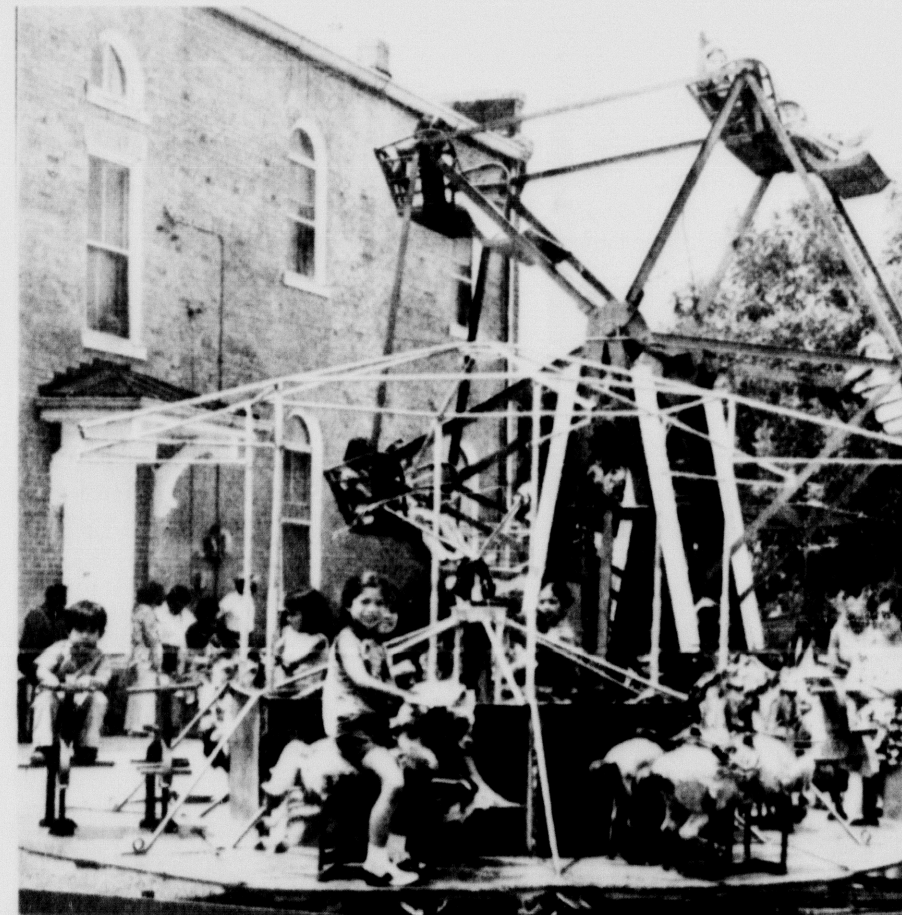

The shortage is generally expected to continue until September 12, the date announced for lifting the ceiling retail prices on beef.

Market Manager of the local H.E.B. Store Juan Martinez reported that the store, which normally orders a large number of forequarters along with whole carcasses, is having trouble obtaining forequarters now. Only whole carcasses are being supplied.

"We order from week to week, and so far we haven't run short of most cuts. But we can't be sure about the future."

Asked about the customers' reaction to a new low-priced ground beef-soy protein mixture, Martinez replied that the consumers are buying the new product as a good substitute for higher-priced pure ground beef.

Lupe Alvarez, market manager at Super Sav, indicated that their meat suppliers have curtailed shipments about 30%, which he said will probably result in the store running out of meat by the end of the week.

Williamson resigns, effective on August 14

Hondo Police Chief Jerry Williamson has submitted his letter of resignation from his post, to be effective August 14. Chief Williamson indicated he would leave on that day to assume a sales position with a San Antonio firm.

He said he expected the City Council to act on his resignation at their regular meeting on the night of August 14.

Williamson is leaving to become a salesman in the South Texas area for the Girard Machinery Company.

a San Antonio firm which makes heavy construction equipment.

He had held a similar position with the company before moving into law enforcement five years ago.

Williamson's first law enforcement position was with the Medina County Sheriff's office, where he served as a deputy before being named Hondo Chief of Police three years ago.

Williamson and his family will continue to make their home in Hondo.

Firemen plan big Street Dance, Carnival

The Hondo Volunteer Firemen are making big plans for their annual Street Dance and Carnival, to be held Saturday, August 18, on the Court House Square.

The event will feature all sorts of entertainment, including games and dancing to the music of Ronnie Mason and the Westerners. Food will be in abundance, and will include cakes and pies as well as cold drinks for the hungry carnival-goers.

Everyone is invited to the party, and the proceeds go to a very good cause.

Police chase car thief

A young car thief caused some excitement for Hondo police early Tuesday afternoon.

The juvenile stole a 1972 Ford belonging to John Zinsmeyer, who was parked in front of the Meyer Clinic on Avenue K.

As he fled with the car, the youth drove past a Hondo police unit, which gave chase.

The pursuit led to Brown's

Nursing Center, where the stolen auto collided with a barricade and came to rest.

The youth fled the scene on foot and the Hondo policeman followed, also on foot. But the youth eluded the officer, and it was some time before he was apprehended at the home of a friend.

The youth was turned over to juvenile authorities.

Bandera man dies

A Bandera man has died of injuries received last week in an accident at Medina Lake.

He was identified as 32-year old Joe Contreras of Bandera. He died Monday night of head injuries suffered in an accident at the lake in northeast Medina County on August 4.

He was first taken to a Kerrville hospital, then transferred to San Antonio, where he had remained in critical condition until Monday evening.

A GREEN THUMB AT CITY HALL--Victor Garcia is the man responsible for the lush grass, colorful flower beds, and shady pecan trees around the Hondo Municipal complex. He has worked for the City of Hondo for over eleven years, and is in charge of maintaining the entire City Hall, Chamber of Commerce office and the grounds.

THIS CEDAR PLAQUE was made for Medina County 4-H'er Jo Anne Coffey, whose mare, Lowell's Susie, was judged Grand Champion Mare at the District 13 4-H Horse Show in Uvalde. The artist is Betty Haile, a 4-H sponsor, mother of three, and an Anvil Herald employee. When Jo Anne went to the State contest in Odessa, she took the plaque with her, and drew compliments from many visitors and contestants. It is made from a solid cedar trunk, with the pictures and lettering burned into the wood. Betty made twenty such plaques for the 20 qualifying 4-H'ers from District 13.

WHO'S THE LEADER

THE MORE I SEE

... of people in the Air Force, both military and civilian, the more impressed I am with their dedication, loyalty, leadership abilities and overall effectiveness.

Sure, I realize this sounds like "tooting my own horn" since I am a member of the Air Force Reserve. But believe me that isn't the case.

Today, the military is staggering under constant attack from the public, as Maj. Gen. F. M. Rogers, vice commander of the Air Training Command, succinctly expressed in a recent speech:

"The familiar post-war syndrome of American anti-militarism is in full flower -- with charges and counter-charges, cries of ineptitude, waste and deteriorating standards on all sides.

"Some civilians blame the military for wasteful management and accuse them of waging inhuman warfare as hired assassins."

I personally disagree with those who expound these sentiments. The people I know in the Air Force and the Reserve perform the tasks at hand in as dedicated and concerned manner as any of the civilians I know.

Certainly, I would be the first to agree that both the Air Force and the Reserve have "slackards" in their ranks. There are some who "aren't worth the powder it would take to blow them to Kingdom Come," yet, I contend these number fewer than you will find in many other fields of endeavor.

Long Time Thing

Perhaps the civilian criticism of services is a time-worn reaction after the fighting has diminished. Rudyard Kipling expressed the same concern in a poem penned many years ago and quoted by Gen. Rogers in his speech:

"Then [in peacetime] it's Tommy this, an' Tommy that, an' Tommy 'ow's yer soul?"

But it's 'thin red line of 'eroes' when the drums begin to roll, The drums begin to roll, my boys, the drums begin to roll,

Then it's 'Thank you Mr. Atkins' when the drums begin to roll."

So where do we go from herein pin-pointing the blame for the "somewhat frayed condition of our social fabric?"

Secretary of Defense Dr. James Schlesinger, who gave the above description of society, also said that "restoration of a sense of national unit and purpose must be our highest objective."

General Rogers said: "In these days of charges and counter-charges it is difficult to find a calm spot which allows introspection and the opportunity for an objective look where the responsibility should be fixed for the problems of our society."

He continued: "Sometimes I get the feeling that if more of us started looking inwardly -- at ourselves -- we would find the answers. Even more importantly, we might find some of the solutions."

I agree whole-heartedly.

Who Leads Whom?

Who are the leaders of our country today? Supposedly, we of the older generation are the logical ones to lead. Life and its many "faces of Eve" has given us the experience to assume the role.

And we talk an awful lot about "holding the reins of leadership". But in many instances, talk is what we do best. And there we are in error; for we cannot lead by words alone.

"These days," says Gen. Rogers, "there's too much to understand, too much to comprehend, too much that is necessary for survival for us to waste time wading through rhetoric."

"And, of course, even more important than the right words -- infinitely more important than the right words -- are the right actions at the right time and place."

We expect our children and other young people to behave in a disciplined manner. "Yet, we must remember," the General cautions, "discipline springs from the spirit, from the self, and only comes as a freely given response to an appropriate stimulus."

Example is Important

Our examples as leaders will mold the response of our young followers -- and I am afraid that our previous actions have been, to a great degree, responsible for us being so "out of touch" with the younger generation.

In fact, somewhere along the way, I am sorry to say, we of the older generation have abdicated our claim to the throne of leadership. We have shirked our responsibilities in many instances.

And our young followers have rebelled. They have viewed our examples and found them wanting.

So what can we do to regain that exalted status of being "looked up to"? Perhaps it's too late and we are destined to take a back seat in leadership functions. But we certainly can try and if we can't reach the prior pinnacle, at least we might attain a state of co-existence.

We must through our own actions become credible to our children. If we are to demand discipline, we must exercise discipline.

General Rogers says: "Discipline is a function of leadership's credibility which implies trust and can only be developed in an atmosphere of mutual respect and integrity -- where objectives and personal goals can be seen as convergent rather than contradictory entities."

So, if we are interested in exerting any influence on the shape of things to come, I say we'd better "get with the game" and work harder to prove our leadership abilities to the "now generation".

RECEIVE AWARDS--J. D. Schmidt and John McAnelly, Vo. Ag. Teachers in Hondo, were awarded the Distinguished Service Award of the Vocational Agriculture Teachers Association of Texas by Sidney Long, president of the organization. The presentation was made at the annual Awards Program of the Association in recognition of their work with newspapers in their area.

Firemen go to school

Bob Zuberbueller and Tim Huesser represented the Hondo Volunteer Fire Department in the 44th Annual Texas Firemen's Training School held July 23-27. The school, attended by nearly 1,200 students representing about 480 cities from 20 states, is held on the Texas A&M University campus.

The program of educating firemen in the newest methods of fire fighting and prevention serves as not only an asset to city fire prevention, but it also causes insurance companies to lower the key rate for fire insurance in a city where firemen attend the classes. Hondo, a city which has participated in the education program for years, enjoys the lowest allowable key rate for insurance for a city its size.

FFA News

Hondo Anvil Herald, Thurs., Aug. 9, 1973, Pg 3

The Hondo FFA Chapter met Monday night and called for volunteers to help haul hay at 6 a.m. Tuesday morning. Mike Nester gave a report on the FFA hay project during the meeting. He stated that most of the hay had been sold and that hay-loaders were needed. Ten boys joined their vocational agriculture teachers for the early hay detail.

Two hours later most of the hay was out of the field.

Gary Saathoff gave a report on the State Range Camp he attended the last week in July at Junction. He reported that they were kept on the move to collect plant specimens, classify the plants and write a short note as to the growing conditions where the plants were found. He stated that they were called at 5:30 a.m. each day and it was about 11:30 p.m. before bedtime. Gary said that he enjoyed the camp and learned much, but that more time was needed to do the work that was set up for them to cover. During the week the 34 boys toured the Sonora Experiment Station and several local ranches and saw many range conservation practices being put to use.

Louis Schmidt gave a report on the State FFA Convention and stated that Hondo FFA had a good showing with 18 boys receiving the State Farmer Degree. Frank Aelvoet's American Farmer Degree was passed on to National FFA level for final checking and that Kenny Weynand was winner of the Houston Fat Stock Show four-year college scholarship. Louis urged all FFA boys to plan to attend a State FFA Convention at least one time while they are in high school.

Schmidt gave a report on the feed-cost squeeze that the boys now face with their feeder calves. Each week the cost of the feed ration goes higher. Only time will tell how the lamb, hog and cattle feeding projects will turn out this year. The purchase of show lambs and hogs will be made after school gets underway.

All feed cost are going to be high this year regardless of the animal or poultry that is being fed.

Following the close of the meeting refreshments were enjoyed by the group.

Kaiser-Allen vows exchanged

Linda Kay Kaiser, daughter of Mrs. Eleanor Kaiser of 12222 Fisher, Waco, became the bride of Elbert Lee Allen of Lawton, Oklahoma in 2:00 p.m. ceremonies at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Waco July 28, 1973.

Lee is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Allen of 2505 Avenue J, Hondo. The ceremony was performed jointly by Father Pat Johnson, pastor of St. Joseph's, and Dr. Floyd Hill from the Hondo Church of Christ.

The bride wore a dress of Chantilly lace over peau, fashioned in natural waistline. A ruffle of lace outlined the rounded yoke, the Victorian neckline, and wrist of the long straight sleeves. A satin cummerbund accented the waist. The skirt fell in circular folds, a wide flounce circling the hemline.

A beaded leaf profile held a three-tier elbow length veil.

The bride carried a bouquet of yellow and white carnations with yellow streamers.

Maid of honor was Miss Carol Baugh of 410 Pleasantview, Waco; bridesmaids were Mrs. Larry Heckman, sister of the groom, of Hondo.

The attendants wore floor-length, princess-style yellow floral flocked voile.

Best man was Joe Stewart of Lawton. Larry Heckman, brother-in-law of the groom, of Hondo, was the groomsman.

Ushers were Kevin Lewis of Corpus Christi and Horace Neely of Hondo.

Wedding music was provided by organist Valerie Gerik.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the parish hall of St. Joseph's Church. Those in the house party were Patsy Rhye, Melinda Allen and Susan Henerson.

The bride is a former employee of Texas Life Insurance Company in Waco. The groom is an assistant manager and salesman for National Housewares Corporation in Lawton, Oklahoma.

Following a wedding trip to Corpus Christi and Padre Island, the couple will be at home in Lawton.

This week All she wrote by Edna McDade

"In the U.S.," says one dictionary, "a meeting of neighbors or friends for husking corn is called a husking bee."

In Texas, we call it a shucking bee and I like that term better but, shucks, what's the difference? The important thing now is for all good corn shuckers to come to the aid of the first annual Hondo Championship Corn Shucking Bee, as sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce.

And, who remembers where the old expression, "Light a shuck!" might have originated? It used to mean "get going" or maybe in today's idiom, "get lost!"

The current "lid" on soybean exports is said to be one of the three top problems for U.S. diplomacy in Europe. Oy, oy, soybeans!

In the early 1940's [or was it the late 30's?] soybeans almost became an ingredient in the production of automobiles. In fact, "Henry" did make at least one soybean Ford, a coupe-although a soybean sedan might have had more alliterative appeal in advertising.

Phenolformaldehyde was developed to become what is now plastic and today's cars are reported to have about 250 parts made of the stuff. After Pearl Harbor the soybean car went into "dry dock" for some years but its history is still said to be somewhere in the Ford files - perhaps filed under M for miscarriage?

Medina County has a number of folks whose hobbies include collections of barbed wire. A recent news release by Texas Farm Bureau reports, via information from the steel industry, current shortages of fencing and baling wire -- among the many other almost fresh-outs that are facing us.

Maybe the barbed wire collectors had better keep a sharp eye on their treasures. Even 18-inch lengths might do for patching fences here and there!

If class mottoes haven't gone out of "style", this seems like an appropriate one for DARWIN SCHRADER's SCS-sponsored outdoor classes:

"To him who in the love of Nature holds/Communion with her visible forms / She speaks a various language."

This is from William Cullen Bryant's "Thanatopsis" and the reason I remember it is because it was not only required reading in my high school days but it was also required memorization.

The above quotation was my favorite and it still holds special appeal as I "listen".

In April of this year, the director of the Texas Dept. of Public Safety announced that, for the first time in its history, it would accept applications from your women [20 to 35] for appointment as highway patrolmen, provided they met "certain qualifications".

So far I have not noticed any more news about the matter. Now, with Women's Lib [the extremist Libbers, of course] demanding that "chairman" be called "chairperson" would a successful candidate for the female division of DP be classified as a "patrolperson"?

Believe it or not, the perverse nit-pickers who seek to reform our vocabulary have even suggested "freshperson" for "freshman". [This lends itself to differences of opinion but, having been one twice in my span of experience, I shall refrain from comment]

What could be sweeter than the plus advantages of retirement and the added luck of winning a $500 US Savings Bond?

Ask HARRY FILLEMAN who probably knows but, the thing is, he seems to keep busy working just the same whenever he can do a good turn for Hondo.

A recent addition to the list of former Hondo post office retirees is CLARENCE A. HAASS who threw in his towel after 38 years of "good and faithful service."

His chosen hobby as the "seasoned citizen" he calls himself sounds interesting but I believe that Clarence, too, will find himself involved in a lot of do-good-ing for his community.

Local residents who might be "Watergate-weary" are invited by a local church, "Come in and let us tell you more about the Pearly Gates."

A church member told me that their preacher had commented: "It is good to see so many visitors this morning. Are you wondering if the Pearly Gates might really have been bugged?"

At the risk of mosquito bites and toothy greetings from dogs along the route, a few local postmen have turned out in the new Bermuda shorts as approved by the powers-that-be.

A cartoon going the rounds features a woman saying to the carrier, "A sex symbol I don't need. All I want is my mail on time."

Publication is tentatively set for mid-August.

This year's magazine will bring 32 pages of interesting facts, how-to advice, and personal case histories pertaining to the value of soil and water conservation in agriculture throughout the County.

The Anvil Herald reminds all merchants in the area that, if you have not yet been contacted about advertising in this well-read magazine, just call us at 426-3346 and we will be glad to help plan an ad.

Also, any editorial copy related to conservation which may be reprinted in the magazine in addition to our own will be greatly appreciated.

Social Security News

Social security benefits were being paid to residents of Medina County at a rate of $314,000 a month at the close of 1972, D. G. Hudson, acting social security manager in San Antonio, said today.

Of the social security beneficiaries living in Medina County, 1,890 are retired workers and their dependents. Another 648 are receiving benefits as the survivors of workers who have died, and 280 are getting benefits as disabled workers or their dependents.

Hudson pointed out that although most social security beneficiaries are older people, about one out of very four is under age 60. Most of the young beneficiaries in Medina County between 18 and 22 years of age, are getting student's benefits under a provision in the social security law permitting the continuation of a child's benefits beyond his 18th birthday, and up to age 22, if the child is attending school full time.

Also in this 18-22 age group, Hudson said, are some other types of beneficiaries, illustrating the broad family protection that the social security program provides workers of all ages. Some are children of retired, disabled, or deceased workers who became disabled before they reached 22 and who will probably never be able to work and become self-supporting. The monthly benefits of these young people, severely handicapped by physical or mental disabilities, will continue indefinitely. Benefits are also payable to the mother if the disabled son or daughter is in the mother's care.

Hudson said that relatively small but significant group of youthful social security beneficiaries are those who are receiving benefits as disabled workers.

Farmers continue to get milo in rapidly

Farmers and ranchers are continuing a rapid pace to get their milo into the grain companies and feed lots in the Medina Valley Soil and Water Conservation District. Almost every day, combines and trucks are rolling, bringing the grain from fields to the market.

Last week farmers were placed at a height of worry when the front moved in, bringing more than an inch of rain throughout the district. Surely, it has been an unusual year for rainfall, and the District will show a bumper crop of milo and corn.

Members of the Soil Conservation Service strongly recommend that residues and stubble that is left from harvest should be left on the land. Some farmers feel they must run their livestock on the milo stubble to get the benefit of some grazing, or it will be lost.

This is a serious mistake, if you would like to keep your land in good and productive fertility.

One of the best methods is to shred or disk the stubble, leaving a high percentage on the surface for protection of the soil against heat, rain and wind.

Additional gain can be made by adding nitrogen fertilizer that will assist the residue to decay into organic matter. This helps the soil to be more porous and open for rainfall and give good production for the coming year.

One might feel that fertilizer alone will keep land productive. But Residue and decayed matter is essential for future yields.

Today, all pastures and rangeland are good and free -- grass is plentiful on all farms, the price is good on beef, pork and all kinds of meat, and most people give odds that prices will go higher. Almost all are holding extra heifers, increasing their herds far above normal. Careful consideration should be given to the fact that this is the eighth year of good rainfall on a yearly basis.

Rainfall above average for eight years is far from normal. One should carefully consider his number of cattle to the results of what a dry year would do.

What would happen to the market in a continuous dry season?

Would you be overstocked?

Abuse your grassed pastures and rangeland! Would you be forced into taking a loss because of an overloaded market?

One cannot predict the future, but one can carefully consider what our land is capable of carrying in a year of average or below-average rainfall.

Proper stocking is the safest route, based on an average year of rainfall. One cannot stock according to the price of beef or what predictions of higher prices will be.

Only through a continued program of good management and proper stocking can one be assured of a secure future in the farming and ranching industry, and we sometimes are in doubt even then.

PROGRESS BEING MADE--Filling of the core ditch for the Parker Creek Dam on the A. O. Gilliam Ranch has begun. The ditch is dug to 20 feet deep for the dam base, and layering and packing of dirt will continue until the ditch is filled and the dam reaches its full height. Recent rains have delayed the project only slightly.

Kazen in Washington

By ABRAHAM [CHICK] KAZEN, Jr., M.C.

Because the Phase IV beef controls have damaged the ranchers, processors and consumers of the nation, I joined 62 other members of the House last week in asking the President to end the beef freeze. Our concerns were that production and processing were disrupted and that consumers were deprived of a major food supply. As we asked in our wire to the President and his advisors, "what good is it to pay a lower price for beef when there is no beef to buy?"

We stressed our concern over the crisis, and asked that the President act promptly to lift the beef ceiling. At this writing, Secretary of Agriculture Butz has indicated he favors that action, but the Cost of Living Council is standing firm that the freeze must continue till September 12. The council has given assurances that no new controls are planned after that date.

Defense Kept Strong
The House last week voted $21 billion for military procurement in the largest authorization bill except for trust fund authorizations. As I voted for the bill, I was aware that we were acting to maintain our Department of Defense. The purpose of that department and of the huge sum is truly defense, to gear our nation not for war, but for prevention of war. In working toward that goal, we must develop new weapons and new equipment.

We were agreed that manpower assignments should be carefully studied, and specifically called for a study by the Committee on Armed Services over the continuing need for assigned troop levels in Europe.

Health Bill Vetoed
President Nixon last week vetoed a three-year plan to improve medical health services, at a cost of $185 million, contending that it would set up major new federal programs in areas traditionally state and local matters. He also objected to Congress deciding to keep open eight Public Health hospitals, including one in Galveston.

The Senate overrode the veto, but House consideration will come on September 12. When we passed the bill, the vote was 306-111, and if that margin holds up, the House will also vote to override. I am not aware that our health services are so good that the Federal Government ought to be cutting back in this field. I am not convinced that our citizens would be better served by new state and local programs. The quality of service is essential, especially since taxpayers must carry the financial burden whether the federal agencies administer or states and cities do.

Shortages of Wire

Constituents' complaints about shortages of baling wire caused me to inquire about that problem. I am told there has been a critical shortage in Texas and Oklahoma because bumper hay crops were ready for harvest at a time when wire availability was below normal. Some American manufacturers have discontinued production and some import sources have dried up. As we in the House expressed concern, the two major American manufacturers were called by members of our Agriculture committee staff and a relief plan was developed.

The wire firms in Kansas City and Colorado are pushing their own production and are also revising their distribution system. They will ship more wire to Texas, gathering the supply by delaying shipments to areas where harvests are later. They believe that adequate supplies will be delivered to Texas sealers within a week. I hope this is one demand-supply problem that is being solved.

Survivors' Benefits

I remind those concerned that September 20 is the deadline for enrollment in the military retirees' survivor benefit plan which I supported last year. It provides that up to 55 percent of a military retiree's retirement pay may be left to survivors if the person concerned has been enrolled in the plan. Annuity payments are required to establish participation. Details are available from the military finance center of each branch of the service. This is meant as an advisory of the approaching termination of enrollment.

The Congress has begun a summer recess which I shall use to see many constituents and friends. I look forward to the opportunity to return to the district, and shall resume these reports when the Congress resumes its session in September.

Milk Production Declines As Predicted... Broilers, Eggs Also Show Declines... Citrus Tree Plantings Increase... Cattle Feeding Increases.

Milk Production in Texas as well as the nation is following a year-long pattern of declines, which has been predicted by dairy group spokesmen. Texas milk production for June is 5 per cent below the previous month's production, although it is slightly above June of a year ago.

Nationwide, milk producing is 2.5 per cent less than a year earlier. Production during the first half of this year is running 2 per cent under 1972. The number of milk cows, nationwide, also has declined by 2 per cent.

The cost price squeeze in the dairy industry is also dramatized in the milk-feed price ratio. That ratio is down 27 per cent from a year ago. It is also the lowest June ratio since 1955.

EGG production in Texas during June is down 4 per cent from a year ago and 5 per cent under last month. Nationwide, a decrease of 5 per cent is noted from the same month a year ago.

Broiler chick hatch in Texas during June is down 7 per cent from a year ago and 10 per cent under the preceding month.

The turkey poult hatch for Texas during June is up 19 per cent from a year ago, but is 9 per cent under a month ago.

The June hatch of egg-type chicks in Texas is up 34 per cent from a month ago and 3 per cent above a month earlier.

CITRUS tree plantings are on the increase in the Lower Rio Grande Valley. Licensed citrus nurserymen and private citrus nurserymen in the Valley reported 230,000 citrus moved from nurseries to groves during the period July 1, 1972 to June 30, 1973.

This is 12 per cent above the previous year when 206,000 trees were set out; these totals reflect new plantings in commercial groves.

Of the total, about 98 per cent are grapefruit; about 2 per cent oranges; less than 1 per cent lemons, limes, tangerines and tangelos.

The number of grapefruit trees planted was up 15 per cent from the previous year. More than half of the 1972-73 plantings were of the Star Ruby variety.

Movement of orange trees to groves continues to decline. Plantings at 4,000 trees were down 50 per cent from the previous season and far below the planting rate of prior years.

CATTLE on feed in Texas and the nation continues to increase. As of July 1, a total of 2,335,000 head of cattle and calves were on feed in Texas. This is 10 per cent above a year ago, 4 per cent above June 1, and 3 per cent above April 1.

Large feedlots--those with 1,000 plus capacity--numbered 234. Steers accounted for 1,513,000 head of the cattle on feed.

Cattle placements on feed in Texas feedlots from April 1 to July 1 were down 11 per cent compared to a year ago. Cattle marketed out of Texas feedlots is 4 per cent above marketings compared to the same period of a year ago.

Feedlot operators intend to market 1,238,000 cattle between now and September 30. This would be 6 per cent more than marketed during the same quarter last year.

Nationwide, cattle and calves on feed is up 2 per cent from a year ago. Cattle feeders plan to market about 1 per cent more than those actually sold during the July to September period of a year ago.

First National RD Leaders School began Aug. 5

Washington -- The first national rural development leaders school in the nation's history began Sunday, August 5, in Lincoln, Nebraska, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USD A).

In training at the session, sponsored by USD A's Rural Development Service (RDS), are 120 men and women representing many segments of rural America. The students come from 42 states, and their backgrounds and occupations vary widely. They all have one thing in common -- a desire to improve their rural development knowledge and skills and to study developmental strategies. The students all are engaged in rural development activities in their home areas.

Keynote speaker at Sunday's kickoff dinner was Eddie Albert, star of the Green Acres television show. His topic was "Discovering Rural America". Representative Charles Thone, Nebraska, will speak at the noon graduation ceremony August 11. William Erwin, assistant secretary of agriculture for rural development, and Dr. Walter A. Guntharp, RDS administrator, welcomed the students and participated in discussions at the opening session August 6th.

Faculty members at the school, being held on the University of Nebraska campus, come from government, business, industry, education, and public interest groups.

Plans are to conduct the school periodically at various locations in the country to provide training for the many state and local leaders who are working in rural development. These schools will be announced in the future as programs for them are developed.

Jette plays well

Paul Jette, 1973 graduate of Devine High School gathered well-deserved praise for his performance in the Texas Coaches All-Star football game played last week in Texas Stadium at Irving.

Jette performed on defense and as a split receiver on offense. In a night of strong pass rushes against Lee High School's star passer Tommy Kramer, Jette pulled in a nine-yard pass from Kramer early in the game.

Spencer Burrell of D' Hanis High School played on the specialty teams Thursday night, and served well in that capacity. The South team lost the close game, 11-7 in what turned out to be a strong defensive struggle.

A crowd of almost 20,000 people watched the contest in the home stadium of the Dallas Cowboys.

All Stars down Falcons

The Hondo All Stars downed the San Antonio Falcons on July 29th at Pruneda Baseball Park by the score of 9 to 8 in 11 innings.

Pitchers for the All Stars were starter R. Lopez and reliever Johnnie Abrego.

Leading hitters for the Falcons were Martinez, with four hits and Morin with three. For Hondo leading hitters, with three hits each, were H. Rodriguez and Raul Dominguez. Emilio Sanchez and Johnnie Abrego had two hits each.

That fateful first pre-football haircut!

Physicals to be given tomorrow night

Any boy who plans to play football for Hondo this fall must have a physical examination before practice sessions begin, reports Hondo Head Coach James Bohls. Several local doctors have donated their time tomorrow night, August 10, to give these examinations free of charge to all prospective Owls.

Coach Bohls says the physicals will be given at the Field House at Barry

Field, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Bohls added that any boy who misses the Friday night examination session will be required to get a physical at his own expense by his family doctor.

Game Wardens aid flood victims

Game wardens from several counties were on hand during the recent area floods to lend a helping hand, aiding sheriff's officers, National Guardsmen, and Highway patrolmen in evacuation and rescue operations.

Beginning early Sunday, July 15, the officers were still on duty in the early hours of the 17th.

About 15 wardens were involved, with seven boats and 15 vehicles.

Wardens involved were San Antonio district law enforcement supervisor C. L. Burdett, Warden August Timmerman, Bill Lynch, Glenn Phelps, Arthur McCall, Bill Kutac, Roy Holstein, Karl Wipff, R. E. Thomas, Neal Ethridge and Emil Krejci, and Austin headquarters personnel Lynn Stanley, T. R. Roberts, Jr., Welby Fountain and Charles Talbot.

Cadet Allen finishes training

Ft. Benning, Ga. - Cadet David F. Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth F. Allen, Route 1, Devine, attended the Army Reserve Officers Training Corps Ranger Camp at Ft. Benning, Georgia.

During the grueling nine-week course, he learned and practiced basic ranger skills, such as land navigation, patrolling and mountaineering. The training, which was a substitute for the normal ROTC Summer Camp required of all cadets before commissioning, concluded with a two-week counter guerrilla operation in the coastal swamps of Northwest Florida.

Graduates of the camp were awarded the Yellow and Black Shoulder Tab worn by all rangers.

A student at Wake Forest University, Winston-Salem, N.C., Cadet Allen is scheduled to complete the training on August 31.

Attention Farmers!

LOOKING FOR AN EASY WAY TO HANDLE ALL THAT STUBBLE?

TREAT YOUR SOIL TO LIFE

Turn that stubble under with 20 to 30 units of Nitrogen and one half gallon of

MEDINA SOIL ACTIVATOR

(Medina can be mixed with liquid Nitrogen)

... and the miracle of the natural soil processes is quickly put to work. The Nitrogen-MEDINA SOIL ACTIVATOR combination balances the nitrogen-carbon ratio and provides energy for microorganisms. Medina quickly promotes soil microorganisms — the life of the soil — increasing their numbers and speeding their digestive action.

Stubble is commonly broken down in four to six weeks

Soil is mellowed, becoming a better storage house for plant food and moisture. The soil-moisture relationship is immediately improved.

A Balanced, Alive Soil Brings It All Together, Profitably

Growth of fall-seeded grain is speeded along. Grazing comes earlier. Wheat and oat yields are given quite a boost (8 to 31 1/2 bushels). Protein is generally increased.

★ From documented farmer case studies of Medina Soil Activator use under field-scale circumstances.
